The Laurel Museum needs YOUR help in planning our next exhibit!

Main Street, circa 1910

Main Street, circa 2010

Our next exhibit, scheduled to open in February 2010, will compare Laurel in 1910 to Laurel in 2010.

We need YOUR help in telling the story of Laurel in 2010! We are putting together an exhibit advisory group that will help guide the Museum in understanding what Laurel is like today. This group will also work with the community to find images that illustrate life in Laurel today.

This is an excellent opportunity for scout groups, school groups, and home school groups to become involved in a project with real results!
