New Years Celebration

December 30, 2009

Last year's New Years Celebration was such a success, we've decided to do it again. Join us during the day of December 30 to explore different cultures New Years' Celebrations. As always, participating children will leave with a full tummy and a bag full of crafts. $5 Fee. Reservations Required.

Our Research Library's Question for You!

If we provided materials online for you to use, which would you prefer?

___ Historic photographs (Laurel related)

___ Thematic newspaper clippings
(i.e. information on WWII, Emancipation Day Parade, etc.)

___ Historic objects and their descriptions
(i.e. 19th century fire bucket, mill tools, etc.)

___ Laurel history related activities
(i.e. cross-word puzzles, word searches, etc.)

___ Interactive website where students can learn about history through activities and games.

Share Your Pictures with us!

The Laurel Historical Society is busy planning our next exhibit. As part of this exhibit, we need pictures of people's lives in Laurel in the last 5 yrs. Your pictures and stories could help determine what our exhibit looks like! Please click here for more information:
